

UCCE and the Center for Applied Horticultural Research Presents

Pest Monitoring in Ornamental Plant Production (in Spanish)

WHEN: Wednesday, October 31, 2012 - 8:00AM to 2:00PM

WHERE: Center for Applied Horticulture Research Conference Room,
2280 Tamara Lane, San Marcos, CA 92069 USA

COST: $90  Continental Breakfast and Lunch Provided  Each attendee will be provided a binder with two extensive handouts on common pests of ornamentals and effective monitoring techniques. In addition, they will receive a 10X hand lens and a poster full of photos of the common pests and natural enemies with Spanish legends.

| | | |
|------------------|---|--|
| 7:30 - 8:00AM | Registration and Introduction | Continental breakfast with friends |
| 8:00 - 8:40AM | Basic Entomology | What is an insect? What makes an insect different than a mite, a spider, a crab, a snail, a slug? What do the good guys look like? |
| 8:40 -9:30AM | Identification of Common Pest Damage | Training on the use of the microscope and hands on training in the identification of pest insects. |
| 9:30 - 10:00AM | Monitoring and Record Keeping | Examples of monitoring methods used for different pests in ornamental plant production and examples of pest id on yellow sticky cards will be presented. |
| 10:00 - 10:20AM | Break | |
| 10:20 - 11:00AM | Basics of Integrated Pest Management | Monitoring is a key component is pest management, so different types of monitoring techniques will be displayed. In addition, the type of damage present can identify some pest problems. Therefore, different types of pest damage will be on hand as examples. |
| 11:00-11:45AM | Field Collection of Pests and Damage (Altman Plants) | In this presentation, all of the common pests of ornamental horticulture will be presented and described. |
| 11:45-12:00PM | Microscope Identification of Collected Pests | Hands on identification of plant damage and collected specimens from the field collections. |
| 12:00 - 12:45 PM | Lunch | Lunch is served |
| 12:45 - 2:00PM | Common Pests of Ornamental Plant Production | Slide presentation of the common pests seen in ornamental plant production |

Special Local Event

*Pest Monitoring in Ornamental Plant
Production
Presented in Spanish*

Wednesday, October 31, 2012
Center for Applied Horticulture Research
2280 Tamara Lane, Vista, CA 92084 USA

REGISTRATION FORM

Name

Organization

Address

City/State/Zip

Phone

FAX

Email

Please complete and mail with check for $90 payable to UC Regents to:

Attn: Barbara Henderson
UC Cooperative Extension
151 E. Carmel Street
San Marcos, CA 92078