

University of California

Agriculture and Natural Resources

Snail and Slug Research and Management in Nurseries Update

UC Riverside, UC Cooperative Extension, UC Statewide IPM Program

June 23, 2015

FREE but must register (see below)

UC South Coast Research and Extension Center

(Landscape Building 'C')

7601 Irvine Blvd

Irvine, CA 92618

Agenda

8:00-8:20 Sign in (coffee, light refreshments)

8:20-8:30 Welcome, overview of meeting

8:30-9:00 Current Status of Snail and Slug Management in Nurseries

Dr. Cheryl Wilen, UCCE and UC IPM

9:00-9:45 Slime time: Key Snail and Slug pests of the Nursery Industry in California and a Novel Strategy for their Control

Dr. Rory Mc Donnell, UC Riverside Dept. of Entomology

9:45-10:30 Discovery of the nematode Phasmarhabditis hermaphrodita (Nematoda: Rhabditidae) in North America and implications for snail and slug management

Dr. Irma Tandingan De Ley, UC Riverside Dept. of Nematology

10:30-11:15 Brown Garden Snail: Microbial associates and plant disease

Dr. Ed Caswell-Chen and Dr. Kristi Sanchez UC Davis, Dept. of Nematology

DPR CEUs Requested

FREE but must register by emailing cawilen@ucanr.edu with your name.

Limited to 30 people.

<http://ipm.ucanr.edu>