

University of California

Agriculture and Natural Resources

PREPARED BY: Manuel Jimenez
DATE: May 19, 2016

Cooperative Extension
Tulare County

UC
CE

4437B S Laspina St
Tulare, CA 93274
559) 684-3300 office
(559) 685-3319 fax
cctulare@ucanr.edu
<http://cetulare.ucanr.edu>

BRAVO LAKE BOTANICAL GARDEN
Berry Festival
Saturday, May 28, 2016

Woodlake Pride and University of California Cooperative Extension, Master Gardeners and the City of Woodlake invite the public to the Bravo Lake Botanical Garden Berry Festival. The festival is scheduled for Saturday, May 28, from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. There is a $5 dollar entrance fee for each participant. Children five years old and under enter free. The event will feature fruit tasting of California's best blueberries, strawberries and blackberries. In addition, the tasting will include peaches, nectarines, Pakistani mulberries and citrus varieties. The public will also have the opportunity to visit the tropical garden, vegetable gardens and the rose gardens that contain more than one hundred varieties. For families who wish to purchase blueberries and blackberries they will have the opportunity to pick their own berries from the beautiful blueberry and blackberry gardens for a nominal cost.

The event will have several participating organizations who will be available to answer all of your gardening and plant health questions. Some of the organizations include, U.C. Master Gardeners, University of California Kearney Agriculture Research and Extension Center, The Plant People, The Sequoia Chapter of the Rare Fruit Growers, Natural Resource Conservation Service, Woodlake Pride Garden Volunteers, Family Health Care Network, Woodlake Chamber of Commerce, the City of Woodlake, Proteus Inc., Mid-Valley Disposal Inc. and others.

The garden is located in Woodlake at 400 E. Naranjo Blvd. From highway 99, take highway 198 east, about 15 miles, turn north on road 196 (HWY 245), turn east on Avenue 344 (Naranjo Blvd.). The garden is located on Naranjo Blvd., two blocks east from the four way stop.

If you have questions, call Manuel Jimenez at (559) 280-2483.