

Victory Garden Workshops

Come learn the basics of how to grow your own food with UC Master Gardener Program volunteers. Find out how to start your garden quickly and easily in a container, in the backyard or in a community garden.

Sundays 1:00-4:00 PM September 8, 15, 22, 29

Oceano Train Depot

1650 Front Street, Oceano, CA 93445

Week 1 (September 8) GETTING STARTED / HOW PLANTS GROW

Topics covered:

Soil and Nutrients, Fertilizers, Composting
Site Selection, Plant Selection, Choosing Seasonal Crops
Keeping Your Garden Safe

Week 2 (September 15) CALIFORNIA FRIENDLY GARDENING

Topics covered:

Water Wise Gardening/Irrigation
Raised Beds
California Natives and Oak Trees
Pollinator Gardens

Week 3 (September 22) PREPARING THE PLOT

Topics covered:

Pest Management
Fruit Tree Selection and Care
Seed Starting and Transplanting

Week 4 (September 29) CONTAINER GARDENING

Topics covered:

Container Gardening/Vegetable Gardening in Small Spaces
Harvesting and Seed Saving/Tool Care
Graduation - Series attendees will receive a UC Certified Victory Garden Certificate

Registration: $55 for the series, $82 for couples, $15/class (Discount for OCSD residents, $40/series, $75 couples, $10/class) Scholarships available

Register: <https://surveys.ucanr.edu/survey.cfm?surveynumber=43336>

