

California Rice Virtual Field Day

When: August 26, 2020, 1:00-3:00 PM

Where: Online Zoom Webinar

Host: Whitney Brim DeForest, UC ANR County Director,
Sutter and Yuba Counties and CE Rice and Wild Rice Advisor

Registration: $20

Objectives/Goals: The UC Cooperative Extension and California Rice Research Station will update attendees in the areas of variety development, disease and arthropod management, weed control, weedy rice, and fertility.

The full agenda can be viewed here.

Who Should Attend: California rice growers, Pest Control Advisers, and others interested in California rice production systems.

Continuing Education Units: Applied for 1 CEU from the California Department of Pesticide Regulation (DPR) and applied for 1 CEU from Certified Crop Adviser (CCA)

Register Here

Featured Speakers:

- Russell Rasmussen, Associate Director, California Rice Experiment Station, California Cooperative Rice Research Foundation
 - Bruce Linqvist, CE Specialist, Dept. of Plant Sciences, UC Davis
 - Kassim Al-Khatib, CE Specialist, Dept. of Plant Sciences, UC Davis
- Whitney Brim-DeForest, CE Rice and Wild Rice Advisor & County Director, Sutter and Yuba Counties
 - Luis Espino, CE Rice Farming Systems Advisor & County Director, Butte County
 - Ian Grettenberger, CE Assistant Specialist, Dept. of Entomology, UC Davis
 - Michelle Leinfelder-Miles, CE Farm Advisor, San Joaquin County

Contacts for More Information:

Logistics and Registration: Rachel Palmer, ANR Program Support Unit, 530-750-1361

Course Content: Whitney Brim-DeForest, UC ANR County Director,
Sutter and Yuba Counties and CE Rice and Wild Rice Advisor

This field day is open to the public.

Please share broadly to those who may be interested in attending.

THIS EVENT WILL BE RECORDED FOR EDUCATIONAL OR PROMOTIONAL USE BY THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA. CONTACT THE ORGANIZERS OF THIS EVENT FOR MORE INFORMATION.

